CALIFORNIA SPORTS HALL OF FAME CELEBRATES
CLASS OF 2014 INDUCTION CEREMONY
SUNDAY, JUNE 22ND

ONTARIO, CA (June 22nd, 2014) - The California Sports Hall of Fame will induct its Class of 2014 featuring five California sports legends, James Worthy (LA Lakers), Bo Jackson (Raiders), Jackie Slater (Rams), Lisa Leslie (LA Sparks), John Mckay (USC football Coach) and The 1972 USC Football National Championship team Honor. The 8th annual Induction Ceremony is scheduled on Sunday, June 22nd 5:00 p.m., at the Ontario Convention Center in Ontario, CA.

"We are proud to continue our tradition of recognizing incredible Californians who have made outstanding contributions at the highest level in sports," said Christian Okoye, Founder, California Sports Hall of Fame. "The Class of 2014 truly embodies what sports is all about and we are excited to honor them during this special evening". The Class of 2014 was selected by a special committee, comprised of past California Sports Hall of Fame inductees and celebrity athletes, for their outstanding contributions to the world of sports in California and/or their ties to the state.

Many former inductees and sports celebrities have been invited to attend and participate in an auction featuring rare sports memorabilia. They will meet and greet guests and help welcome the Class of 2014. Invited past inductees include California sports celebrities such as Dick Vermeil, Eric Dickerson, Tommy Lasorda, Dan Fouts, Bill Walton, Jackie Joyner-Kersey, Mike Powell, Tom Flores, Marcus Allen, Cheryl Miller, Karch Kiraly and many more. Proceeds will benefit underprivileged youth.
