California Sports Hall of Fame announces 2024 inductees

(ONTARIO, California, April 22, 2024) – Five legends whose on- and off-the-field contributions have made an indelible impression on the California sports landscape will be inducted into the California Sports Hall of Fame in Ontario.

This year's inductees are Lakers Iron Man A.C. Green Jr., who holds a National Basketball Association record for most regular-season games played; San Diego State and Rams running back Marshall Faulk, the National Football League's Most Valuable Player in 2000; Scott Boras, who was named by Forbes magazine as the Most Powerful Sports Agent in the World; quarterback Rodney Peete, an All-America with the University of Southern California who played 15 years in the NFL; and Andrew Bernstein, who has served as the official sports photographer for most professional teams in Los Angeles and is the NBA's longest-tenured photographer.

They will be inducted during formal ceremonies on Sunday, June 30, at the Ontario Convention Center.

"The impact that these five sports industry legends have had cannot be measured in numbers alone. In so many different ways, they have enhanced and transformed the experience for fans and entire communities and helped to make California the center of the American sports scene," said Christian Okoye, former All-Pro running back for the Kansas Chiefs and founder of the California Sports Hall of Fame.

The California Sports Hall of Fame Inductee Gala will be followed by the Celebrity Golf Classic on Monday, July 1 at Red Hill Country Club in Rancho Cucamonga.

CALIFORNIA SPORTS HALL OF FAME

The California Sports Hall of Fame, operated by the Greater Ontario Sports & Entertainment Authority, was founded by Christian Okoye, former all-pro running back for the Kansas City Chiefs. With support from some of the biggest names in sports from the State of California, this influential organization was formed to honor our sports heroes, support struggling athletes, highlight California Sports history and promote education through sports. The organization assists young struggling athletes and Olympic hopefuls who cannot support themselves while training for competitions. Once a year, an induction ceremony is held to honor the accomplishments and contributions of the men and women who have excelled in their respective areas of sports and sports media in the State of California first, nationally and worldwide.

GREATER ONTARIO SPORTS AND ENTERTAINMENT AUTHORITY

The Greater Ontario Sports & Entertainment Authority, powered by Greater Ontario California (GOCAL), is proud to be the cornerstone for all sports-related activities in the region. The Authority works hand-in-hand with GOCAL to find and secure hospitality support for all events. For more Information visit GO-CAL.org
